

Peter F. Donaldson
Master Chief Petty Officer
United States Navy

Master Chief Donaldson currently serves as Command Master Chief, Naval Criminal Investigative Service, Office of Military Support, Quantico, Virginia. He was raised in Seattle, Washington. He graduated from Blanchet High School and has an Associate of Arts Degree in General Studies from the University of Phoenix.

MACM Donaldson enlisted in the U. S. Navy in February 1993 under the Delayed Entry Program. His first assignment was aboard USS GERMANTOWN (LSD-42) in Sasebo, Japan in June 1993. He served as an Undesignated Seaman in Deck Department. During his assignment, he deployed to the Arabian Sea, Carat 95, Kangaroo 96, Cobra Gold 94 and 96, and Foul Eagle 97. He then reported to CFAY Port Operations, in Yokosuka, Japan in March 1998 as Deck Boatswains Mate aboard USS Muskegon (YTB-763) and advanced to BM2. In April 2000, he reported to USS Cushing (DD-985) in Yokosuka, Japan, and served as Deck Divisions Leading Petty Officer and advanced to Boatswains Mate First Class. During his assignment, he deployed to the Northern Arabian Sea in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and the Global War on Terrorism campaigns. He participated in Master-at-Arms “A” School, in Hampton Roads, Virginia in May 2003. After completing training, he reported in July 2003 to Commander Fleet Activities Yokosuka Security Detachment in Yokosuka, Japan as an Master-at-Arms First Class working in Operations and Physical Security Divisions.

In August 2006, he reported to Naval Base Kitsap Security Detachment in Bremerton, Washington as a Chief Petty Officer. During his assignment, he served as Operations Chief and was responsible for 86 Naval Security Force personnel and the daily operations of 4 watch sections. In December 2009, he reported to USS SHILOH (CG-67) homeported in Yokosuka, Japan as the Chief Master-at-Arms and advanced to Senior Chief Petty Officer. During his assignment, he enforced good order, discipline, and regulations for 368 Sailors. Following the March 2011 Japanese earthquake, he conducted three weeks of maritime search and rescue and humanitarian aid operations off Sendai, Japan in support of Operation Tomodachi. In March 2014, he reported to Naval Air Facility MISAWA in Aomori, Japan as the Senior Enlisted Advisor for the Security Detachment. He is a Senior Enlisted Academy graduate class 201 “Khaki.”

MACM Donaldson’s personal awards include Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medals (four awards), Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medals (five awards), Unit Commendation Medals (three awards), and unit service campaign awards (three awards).